Russell Gordon '12, senior wide receiver for the University of Pikeville, was honored with the 2016 Mid-South Conference East Division Champions of Character award. Gordon was named an NAIA Scholar-Athlete and is a two-time Academic All-MSC selection. He volunteered as a youth coach and referee at the Pikeville YMCA and created the facility's first youth volleyball and dodgeball leagues. Gordon spends time volunteering at the Hospice of the Bluegrass visiting with residents of the senior-citizen center, and he even organized a gift-basket program.

Katie Blomquist '01, a first grade teacher at Pepperhill Elementary School, started a GoFundMe Campaign, "Every Kid Deserves a Bike" to buy bikes for all students at her school. She was featured on local news and the Steve Harvey Show.

Nich Fredlich '16 and Izzy Bugatti '11 worked together on Secretary Clinton's presidential campaign.

Kiyomi Calloway '16 helped organize a national movement "No Tolerance Movement" for equality and awareness. "I just hope that this movement proves to the rest of the world that we can be strong and show our own identities regardless of the predisposition they put on us because of color," Calloway said.

Chase McKinzie '10 of US Cryotherapy, Studio City, reflected, "My professional career has been rooted in the industry of helping people, something that was cultivated in my time at Campbell Hall."
