

ALUMNI CLASS NOTES

Cambria Haro '15 won First Place for two of her Television Features in the 2019-2020 Hearst Journalism Awards Program. Cambria's award-winning pieces focus on the personal journeys of two inspirational people who triumph over extraordinary odds.

Shannon Cooley '99 won election for judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County.

Dustin Draai '12, Vice President of Entertainment and Marketing for Draai's Beachclub, Nightclub and After Hours, was recognized by Vegas Inc. as a "40 Under 40" honoree.

Adam Rider '02 founded Flatten The Curve NGO, a volunteer-based organization, to provide much-needed protective equipment and supplies to first and frontline responders.

Kyle Adomain '18, a student at the University of Southern California's Marshall School for Business, founded TutorTies, a peer-to-peer tutoring platform for the university which matches tutors and students.

Dr. Daniel Bruckner '00, a pediatrician in Encino, has donated more than 60,000 FDA-approved surgical masks to local pediatric offices for sick children as they enter the facilities as well as to the medical staff caring for these patients. Click here to watch "Dr. Danny" on ABC News.

Sara Rosenblatt '11 received a scholarship from the Rachel Morrison Memorial Fund for her continued work in marine conservation. Sara is an M.S. candidate at San Diego State University studying marine ecology.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Christine Kirk '99 is providing pro bono public relations and social media marketing services to LA restaurants who need help spreading the word about their business during the pandemic.

Chase McKinzie '10 owner of a US Cryotherapy in Austin, donated over 300 masks to St. David's Hospital to protect medical workers in his community.

Sophia Eppolito '15 was selected as one of seventeen journalists hired by The Associated Press and Report for America to boost the AP's statehouse coverage. Sophia will be covering the Utah legislature in Salt Lake City reporting on the intersection of religion and state government, medical marijuana, and the state's economic and policy decisions that are being developed in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

EVENTS

The Campbell Hall Black Alumni (CHBA) group hosted their first panel event on February 27, 2020 for students, parents, parents of alumni, and alumni to connect, share and network! Special thanks to all of our panelists Lauren Accordino '05, Marty Henry '05, Deanna Ingram '05, and Matthew Jordan '05.

Special thanks to Caroline Alford '13 and Katelyn Mulcahy '15 (l-r) who spoke at the 5th Annual Alumni Chapel held on March 2, 2020. Caroline shared her experiences working for Teach for America and Katelyn discussed her work as a professional photographer for the Houston Astros.

LET US KNOW WHAT YOU'RE UP TO!

Email alumni@campbellhall.org to include a class note in the next issue of The Good.

WEDDINGS

Congratulations!

(Clockwise from upper left)

Sloane Arcaro '05 wed Ryan French on May 26, 2019, in Palm Springs, CA.

Brandon Koletsky '10 wed Sarah Jasinski on April 19, 2020 in Austin, Texas.

Aaron Labowe '09 wed Rachel Wachtel on January 19, 2020, in Los Angeles, CA.

Rachel Sherman '12 wed Daniel Katz on March 7, 2020, in Santa Barbara, CA.

BABIES

Roxanne Saei Schau '07 and Jordan Schau welcomed Ronan Baer on April 20, 2020.

SIGHTINGS

PASSING

Patria Aziz '19, playing tennis for Pomona-Pitzer Colleges, and Summer Quinn '18, playing for Brandeis University, met up at the 12th annual ITA Division III National Women's Team Indoor Championship.

Christian Frederic Haerle '80 passed away on August 31, 2019.

