The Community
Campbell Hall, founded in 1944, is an independent, co-educational, college preparatory, Episcopal day school. Situated on 15 naturally landscaped acres, the campus in Studio City, California is in a residential neighborhood in Los Angeles’ San Fernando Valley. Campbell Hall is committed to enrolling a culturally and economically diverse student body from 135 zip codes in the Los Angeles area. Campbell Hall is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools (WASC) and the California Association of Independent Schools (CAIS), and is a member of the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS), the National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES), and the Independent Curriculum Group (ICG).

Mission and Values
Campbell Hall is a community of inquiry committed to academic excellence and to the nurturing of decent, loving, and responsible human beings.

The teaching and learning at Campbell Hall does not separate the intellect from the heart, but connects the breadth of the mind with the breath of the spirit. Drawing from the Episcopal tradition that knowledge comes from asking questions rather than asserting answers, we challenge our community each day to investigate the meaning of the lives we live together. Our students are persons of both reason and faith. Their quest for knowledge becomes a journey of intellectual discovery that is wed to a moral center. What our students learn is sewn into a pattern of faith for daily living. As a community of inquiry, our students’ learning takes the form of joyous inquiry rather than rote learning.

We are at heart a community exploring together the nature of reality, the norms of culture, and concrete ways to make the world a better place. We encourage all members of the community to improve their critical faculties, to value the learning and thought we have inherited from the past, and to remain open always to truths beyond our current understanding.

We encourage faculty and administrators to create programs that allow students to pursue inquiries wherever they lead, to give students an experience of the transformative power of essential questions. We encourage faculty and administrators to explore approaches that help students’ curiosity expand rather than contract.

We prepare students best for a larger world where highly complex problems dominate the landscape by nurturing their critical thinking skills within a supportive community so they know how to work with others with grace, focus, intelligence, and optimism.

The Students
Campbell Hall enrolls 1,135 students. The high school enrollment is 549, 135 of whom are seniors. Our students represent a broad cross-section of ethnic, religious, cultural, and socio-economic backgrounds. 39% are students of color and 27% receive financial aid.

The Faculty
Of the diverse and talented 156 faculty, 63% hold advanced degrees. Faculty members are intricately involved in the school community and have a strong, long standing commitment to Campbell Hall. 50% have taught at Campbell Hall for more than fifteen years. The average class size is 14.
Academic Terms and Unique Courses

ACADEMIC TERMS
Campbell Hall offers courses that are either one year or one semester in length. The official grade reported for credit on the transcript is the end-of-course grade. The only other progress grade reports sent to colleges are in the students’ senior year: in early December we send students’ first trimester grades for their year-long courses, and in early February we send students’ end-of-course grades for their semester-long courses.

UNIQUE COURSES
Campbell Hall Advanced Inquiry (CHAI) courses are designed to engage students in constructing meaning through authentic, rigorous study of a discipline at the college level. They represent the highest level of study in a particular subject. These courses serve the school’s mission as a community of inquiry and allow for a much deeper level of discussion, engagement, depth, and quality to which Campbell Hall is committed.

All students must complete one semester of Art History and one semester of Music History during their junior or senior year. These long-standing requirements ask students to examine the academic disciplines of both visual and performing arts in civilization and are crucial components in the school’s commitment to the value of a broad and interdisciplinary liberal arts and sciences education.

The Senior Project program is an extension of the school’s mission to create a community of inquiry through student designed projects that develop real-world connections, captivate students’ interest, and foster personal growth. Seniors elect to take part in these self-directed experiences that include career exploration, service learning, or a creative endeavor. In a culminating exhibition, seniors formally present their projects and personal reflections to the school community.

Students who would like to engage in self-directed exploration or research on a specific topic can partner with a faculty member to create an academic course through the Independent Study Program. Independent study courses are designated on the transcript with the prefix “IS.” Recent courses include: Theater Education with a focus on Scene Study; Directed Projects: Dance Photography in Film; Introduction to Quantum Physics; Screenwriting for Short Films; and Data Structures and Algorithms.

As part of a thriving, multi-tiered program, Campbell Hall’s most advanced creative writers have the option of earning a Creative Writing Fellow designation on their transcript by completing a rigorous sequence of workshops, public performances, directed independent study devoted to literary techniques, editing, and service to the community, culminating in the production of a chapbook of original work and a thesis defense. When evaluating a transcript, these courses should be considered academic, and the advanced and independent study courses as Honors-level, as in both discourse and expectation, they operate like high-level undergraduate creative writing classes.

Honors and Advanced Placement Courses
Campbell Hall students must meet rigorous standards to earn placement into Honors, Advanced Placement, and CHAI courses. Enrollment is by department approval. In AP courses, students are also required to take the Advanced Placement exam. Of the 132 students in the Class of 2019, 95% took at least one honors, AP, or CHAI course during their junior and senior years. 58% of the graduating class took 1-5 advanced level classes, and 40% took 6 or more.

Honors and Advanced Placement courses are “weighted” and are given an additional 1.0 GPA point. All classes except physical education are used in computing grade point averages.

Disciplinary Policy
It is Campbell Hall’s policy to report disciplinary infractions when this information is requested by the college, educational program, or other institutions to which the student has applied. The infraction will be noted on the student’s Secondary School Report filled out by the college counselor. The college counselor will also include comments about the circumstances surrounding the disciplinary action in the letter of recommendation. This disclosure will be accompanied by the student’s reflective statement.

In a community of inquiry, innovations in teaching and learning are always underway and reflected in changes both big and small. Indeed, our commitment to provide the best program for students compels change when we feel that a current offering falls short in some way. Thus, in an exciting and dramatic new initiative, Campbell Hall has committed to eliminating roughly half of the currently offered 25 Advanced Placement courses and replacing them with Campbell Hall Advanced Inquiry (CHAI) classes beginning in the fall of 2018. The remaining redesigns and introduction of new CHAI classes will take place during the 2019-20 and 2020-21 school years.

Mission-driven innovation and managed change are crucial to our continued growth as a school that always strives for excellence. As we prepare to move boldly into the future with the CHAI program, we are excited to provide our students with this unique opportunity to embark on a journey of intellectual discovery.
